

GFEI timeline

This timeline picks out a number of key events since GFEI was established in 2009, including major reports, political commitments, and new policies and standards to improve fuel economy.

| | | | | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|--|--|---|---|
| GFEI is launched at Geneva Motorshow  | GFEI launches report on fuel economy in South East Asia  | GFEI launches report on car scrappage schemes in Europe  | GFEI part of commitments sustainable transport at Rio +20  | Chile adopts fuel economy label  | GFEI 'Accelerator' meeting in Paris on fuel efficiency  | Government of Kenya announces plans for new fuel economy scheme  | Thailand introduces new fuel economy label  |
| 2009 President Obama's global climate initiative at the Major Economies Forum backs GFEI  | 2010 GFEI presents at Low Carbon Vehicle Conference, London  | 2011 GFEI publishes first international comparison of light-duty vehicle fuel economy - presented at Challenge Bibendum in Berlin  | 2012 ICCT joins partnership  GFEI launches new work programme for 2012-2015  | 2013 UC Davis joins GFEI  GFEI presents at UN open working group on new Sustainable Development Goals for energy  | 2014 GEF awards support for fuel economy policies in 6 more countries  GFEI included in G20 Action Plan on Energy Efficiency  | 2015 GFEI launch 100 countries campaign at Sustainable Energy for All (SE4ALL) Forum in New York  GFEI Global Training, Paris  | Paris Climate Change COP - December 2015  |
| Global Environment Facility supports GFEI  | GFEI at COP16 in Cancun  | GFEI presents policy ideas to Chilean Minister of Environment  | | GFEI identified as 'high impact opportunity for Sustainable Energy for All (SE4ALL)  | GFEI addresses UN General Assembly at New York Climate Summit  | UN agrees energy efficiency and other SDGs in New York - September  |  |

GFEI is launched at Geneva Motorshow

GFEI launches report on fuel economy in South East Asia

GFEI launches report on car scrappage schemes in Europe

GFEI part of commitments sustainable transport at Rio +20

Updated international comparison of fuel economy published

Chile adopts fuel economy label

GFEI State of the World report launched

GFEI included in draft Sustainable Development Goals

GFEI publishes latest update on fuel economy worldwide (2008-2013)

Government of Kenya announces plans for new fuel economy scheme

Thailand introduces new fuel economy label

2009

President Obama's global climate initiative at the Major Economies Forum backs GFEI

Global Environment Facility supports GFEI

2010

GFEI presents at Low Carbon Vehicle Conference, London

GFEI at COP16 in Cancun

2011

GFEI publishes first international comparison of light-duty vehicle fuel economy - presented at Challenge Bibendum in Berlin

GFEI presents policy ideas to Chilean Minister of Environment

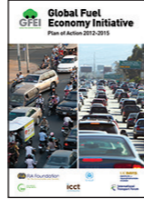

2012

ICCT joins partnership

GFEI launches new work programme for 2012-2015

2013

UC Davis joins GFEI

GFEI presents at UN open working group on new Sustainable Development Goals for energy

GFEI identified as 'high impact opportunity for Sustainable Energy for All (SE4ALL)

2014

GEF awards support for fuel economy policies in 6 more countries

GFEI included in G20 Action Plan on Energy Efficiency

GFEI addresses UN General Assembly at New York Climate Summit

2015

GFEI launch 100 countries campaign at Sustainable Energy for All (SE4ALL) Forum in New York

GFEI Global Training, Paris

UN agrees energy efficiency and other SDGs in New York - September

Paris Climate Change COP - December 2015

